Madras Central Museum.

COLLEGE OF FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS,

1st September, 1852.

SIR,—A year having elapsed since I commenced to form a public Museum for the Madras Government, in the hope that you may be induced to help me to extend the collection to a degree worthy of this Presidency, I take the liberty of detailing to you, briefly, what has been done in the past twelve months and of soliciting your aid in those Departments of Science and Art that I most require assistance in.

The Madras Museum has been arranged into two great Divisions, viz. a Department of Natural History, and one of Practical or Economic Geology; The Natural History Museum having its sections for Mineralogy, Descriptive Geology, District Geology,† Palæontology, Ornithology, Mammalogy, Icthyology, Conchology, Entomology and the other branches of this Science;—and, in the Practical or Economic Division of the Museum, there is one section for Raw Materials and Produce from the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms;—1 of Machinery for Agricultural, Manufacturing, Engineering, and other purposes, and Mechanical Inventions;—a 3d for Manufactures; and a 4th for Sculpture, Models, and the Plastic Art, and those sections that your assistance is most required for, I have marked thus,*

You will be aware, from the Notification on the other page, that the duplicates which were left from the specimens sent to the Grand Exhibition, formed the nucleus of the present Museum; but, about 8,000 specimens having been, since then, collected, there are now, 94 cases, containing in all about 14,000 specimens, and I estimate, roughly, the intrinsic value of the whole collection at Rs. 10,000; and as I think that many a one is deterred from giving me assistance as well from supposing that it is necessary to be a Naturalist in order to judge what to present, as from supposing that unless a large number of specimens should be sent at a time they would not be acceptable, I beg to draw your attention to that part of the annexed Notification which states that any thing which you may be pleased to forward will be useful to me in forming the Museum,—and all that I would solicit your kindly attending to is that you should describe, precisely, the locality whence the specimens that you have presented are procured, with any remarks that you may be pleased to add as regards their cost, their abundance and the facility of transporting them. I apologise for thus troubling you, but trusting that the importance of the subject will plead my excuse, and at the same time induce you to give me your assistance;

† In this section, I have arranged in separate cases the rocks and minerals of each Collectorate or Military Division of the Madras Presidency.

I have the honor to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

EDWARD BALFOUR,

In charge of the Govt. Museum.

Sir, My Comparative want of acquaintance with the modus of transactions [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to write to you [illegible] enquiry, what I ought to [illegible] to do. I apologise [illegible] at once, and [illegible] to you for the truth [illegible] [illegible] you [illegible] [illegible] applied to Government for [illegible] [illegible] for the money that [illegible] [illegible] I will gladly [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] been [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, August 14, 1851.

The Honorable the Court of Directors having expressed their approval of the establishment of a Central Museum at the Presidency and of local repositories in the interior, the Madras Literary Society with a desire of promoting the Honorable Court's views, lately presented their collection to Government. The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has added the duplicate specimens remaining after despatching the Articles for the Grand Exhibition; and He now invites the Servants of Government, and the European and Native community in general, to assist in the development of the Government Museum, which is open in the College of Fort St. George.

The whole of the upper part of the College of Fort St. George has been allotted for the specimens; an allowance, which Assistant Surgeon Balfour, the Officer in charge, has reported to be, for the present, sufficient, has been sanctioned for an Establishment and for the purchase of specimens; and further arrangements will be made as the Institution expands.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that the Central Museum at the Presidency should combine the objects of a Museum of Practical or Economic Geology, and of a Museum of Natural History, for which the specimens from the Mineral, Vegetable and Animal Kingdoms, and those of Machinery, Manufactures, and Sculptures already collected admirably serve as a commencement.

In the extension of a Museum of this nature every person may have it in his power to aid, as every point of information, and every specimen that may be sent will be acceptable: but, in order to guide contributors and to give publicity to the arrangements and objects of the Institution, the Officer in charge will occasionally print and circulate notes and extracts from publications on points connected with subjects likely to be of use.

The very numerous and liberal donations already received from the European and Native community encourage the expectation that the Museum which is even now of importance will soon become greatly increased: but much assistance is anticipated from the various Departments of the Government, who will give the Officer in charge every aid in their power and second the efforts of individuals disposed to respond to this invitation.

Communications from the Provinces, addressed to the Officer in charge of the Madras Government Museum, will be received free of postage, and parcels containing specimens similarly addressed, if delivered at the Cutcherries of Collectors, or to the Officers of the Commissariat or Ordnance Departments will be forwarded by those Officers to the Presidency as opportunities may offer.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.
